to Her Parents' Summer
Home for Affair.

MANY DINNER PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. T. Sufferen Tailor Entertain in Honor of Debutante.

NEWPORT, Aug. 4.—Miss Flora Vanderbilt Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, made her debut to-night at a ball given by her parents in their Bellevue avenue home. It was attended by a majority of the summer residents, who for the greater part had come from dinner parties. Chief among these was one given by Mr. and Mrs. T. Sufferen Tailor in honor of Miss Whitney, while Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Thompson gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney had a large ballroom added to their home for the ball. It is a permanent addition, and includes other rooms besides the ballroom, which is finished in blue and yellow.

Supper was served in the large dining room, and outside in the large fountain sprays. Numerous tents on the lawn were illuminated, and for those who did not care to dance there were bridge tables in the drawing room. Miss Whitney assisted her mother in receiving. Two orchestras furnished the music.

Others who gave dinners this evening were Robert Walton Goelet, in honor of his guest, Marjorie de Polignac; James J. Van Allen, Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont and Mrs. Henry F. Godfrey; Capt. Henry A. Wilson gave a dinner on the Wyoming in honor of Vice-Admiral and Mrs. De Witt Coffman. Mrs. Pembroke Jones gave a luncheon at Sherwood today, and Mrs. Riano was also a luncheon hostess at the Spanish Embassy.

Visitors at the Casino this morning included James Gordon Bennett, who with Mrs. Bennett, is the guest of Mrs. William Jay. Gov. Whitman and his military aid, Capt. Lorillard Spencer, Jr., have returned here from Albany.

E. C. DAVIDSON, LAWYER, DIES AT 61

He Won Case Against Eastman
Kodak Company for Goodwin Interests.

Bay Head, N. J., Aug. 4.—Edward Crawford Davidson, the patent lawyer who represented the Goodwin interests in their long fight with the Eastman Kodak Company, died in his summer home today. Overwork in that litigation contributed to his death. Mr. Davidson was 61 years old.

The litigation posthumously established Hannibal Goodwin, an Episcopal minister, as the inventor of the pliable camera film and brought his widow, who is 86, and her daughter, 60, both of Newark, a fortune running into millions.

Mr. Goodwin was led to experiment in photography by his desire to prepare stereoscopic pictures for use in his Sunday school. He died in 1902 without realizing anything on his invention. His heirs sold his rights to the Ansco company, and it was as their attorney that Davidson waged a legal fight lasting almost twelve years, which resulted in a complete victory for the Goodwin assignees.

An indemnity was paid by the Eastman concern for the use it had made of the Goodwin process. At the time of the trial it was estimated that the amount would be between $500,000 and $250,000, but when an agreement was reached the amount was not disclosed.

Mr. Davidson was born in Washington, the son of Major Delozier Davidson, U. S
